

KEY FIGURES

*Estimations are based on data reported/confirmed by National Disaster Management Organisations of each respective ASEAN Member State and other verified sources.

Philippines

- The Philippine Institute of Volcanology and Seismology (PHIVOLCS) reported that a tectonic earthquake of 6.9 magnitude with 3 km depth, struck Davao del Sur province, Mindanao island, the Philippines on Sunday, 15 December 2019 at 13:11 (UTC+7). The earthquake was located on 6.80°N, 125.20°E, 9 km northwest of Matanao municipality.
- According to PHIVOLCS, there were a total of 556 aftershocks recorded as of 16 December 2019, of which, 199 were plotted and 55 were felt.
- The Philippine's National Disaster Risk Reduction and Management Council (NDRRMC) conducted Response Cluster Meeting on 16 December 2019, and have continuous coordination with its Member-Agencies and affected Regional Offices.
- The NDRRMC reported that a total of 14 bridges were affected, and 11 schools were partially damaged in Davao del Sur, Region XI and Sarangani, Region XII. As of yesterday, a total of 13 municipalities/cities in these regions declared suspension of classes.
- Region XI (Davao Region) is still on RED alert status and closely monitoring damages and other after-effects of the incident. On the other hand, CARAGA Region still in BLUE alert, while other affected regions (IX, X, XII, BARMM) remain in WHITE alert.
- Local Disaster Risk Reduction and response units have created community-based frontline emergency responders following the earthquake event.
- AHA Centre is in close coordination with NDRRMC and gives support by providing information products for the National Cluster Meeting today, 17 December 2019.
- AHA Centre is continuously monitoring and issue update should there be any significant development of the situation.